

One-Year Slovak Course at EUBA

The foundation program for admission to universities in Slovakia.

Program dates:

15.09 – 31.08

University of Economics in Bratislava

The program was developed by the International Union of Youth in cooperation with the leading state university in Slovakia – the University of Economics in Bratislava (EUBA). The course is taught by experienced university professors, who continuously improve their teaching skills.

In addition to a rich language course, each participant will also have an interesting cultural and entertainment program, which will help to get familiar with the country and successfully adapt to the Slovak Republic.

At the end of the course, our students reach that level of language, which allows you to study at the best universities in Slovakia free of charge.

5 REASONS TO CHOOSE EUBA COURSES

One of the leading economic universities in Slovakia

The university is recognized as one of the best not only in Slovakia, but also in the European Union.

Comfortable location

The courses are held in Bratislava, the cozy and hospitable capital of the Slovak Republic. The city borders with two countries at once: Austria and Hungary. Plus it is located only 80 km from Vienna.

Free education in Slovak

Studying at universities in Slovakia is free, even for international students. All you need is to learn the Slovak language at the proper level. This course was developed specifically for that purpose.

Support from coordinators

Throughout the course, students are assisted by experienced coordinators in questions of selection of the university, admission process, registration of documents and accommodation.

Accommodation in comfortable residences

All participants of the course are provided with accommodation in student residences of the university. The rooms are equipped with everything for a comfortable long-term stay.
